

Sort Out the Cost of Your Funeral Now and you need never worry again!

Planning and Pre-arranging your own funeral may seem morbid. But it isn't.

There are currently no Laws or Regulations regarding funerals in Cyprus.

Therefore expatriates can be vulnerable to a funeral director that doesn't meet the UK standard and cause unnecessary worry at a time of great distress for your next of kin.

Legally pre-arranging your funeral is a sensible and straightforward way to ensure that your final affairs are in order according to your wishes.
